Ecosia (Ecosia search engine) is a search engine that donates 80% of its profits to tree planting projects. Ecosia uses Bing and Google results, and allows you to choose which one to use. Ecosia is available in 15 languages, including Ukrainian, English, Russian, German, Spanish, French, Portuguese, Polish, Italian, Dutch, Swedish, Danish, Norwegian, Finnish, and Czech. Ecosia's servers are powered by renewable energy. Ecosia's search results are displayed in a clean, ad-free interface. Ecosia's mobile app is available for iOS and Android devices. Ecosia's browser extension is available for Chrome, Firefox, and Safari. Ecosia's search results are displayed in a grid format, with each result displayed in a separate tile
